

ZHUANG HONG YI

Born in Sichuan, China and having spent the last 25 years in Rotterdam, Zhuang has over 30 international solo exhibitions as well as being featured in many Contemporary art museums and major art fairs.

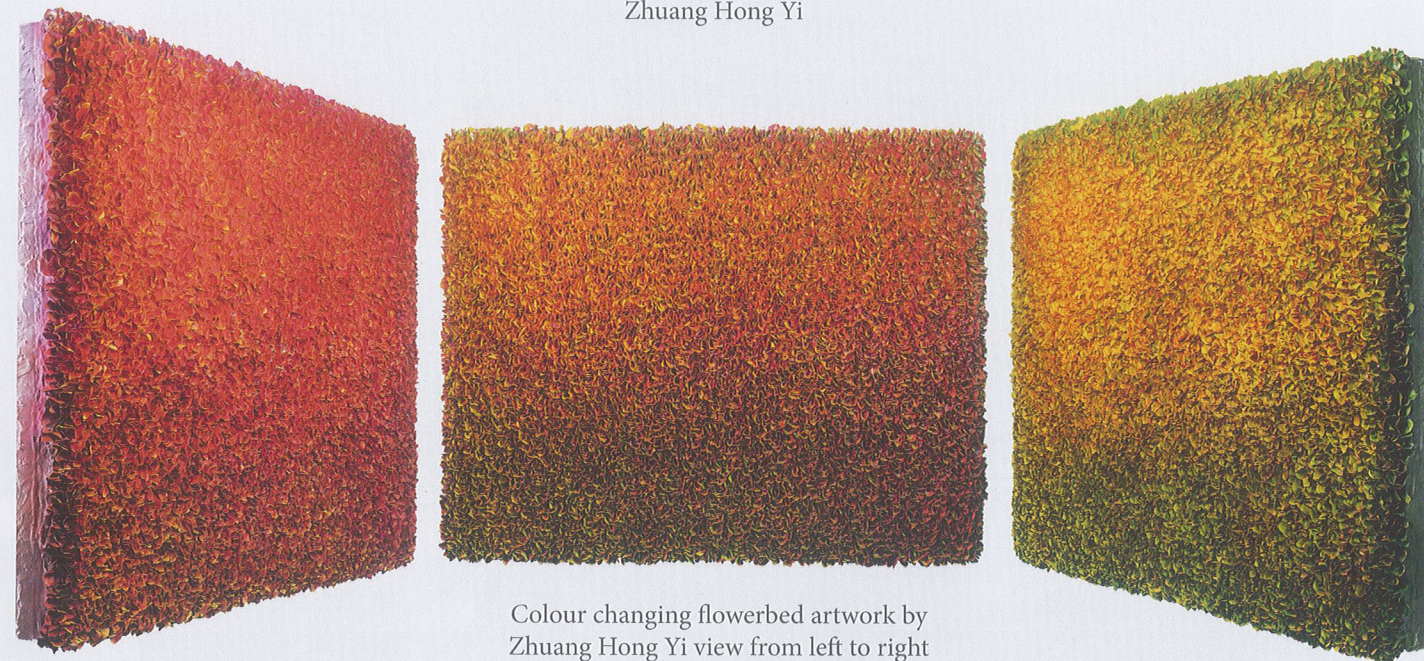

Zhuang Hong Yi's work includes striking flowerbed designs and opulent wall installations made from fine rice paper and acrylic. His intricate artwork combines flavours from the East and West, paying homage to both Chinese tradition and Europe's impressionist movement.

Throughout the years, Zhuang has gained a reputation as an artist whose work is increasingly popular among royals and celebrities. Some of his known collectors include the King of Morocco, the Abu Dhabi royal family, Saudi and Qatari royalty as well as many Hollywood celebrities.

No.6 by Zhuang Hong Yi 90 x 70

“ My work is not simply just paintings but objects of Art ”
Zhuang Hong Yi

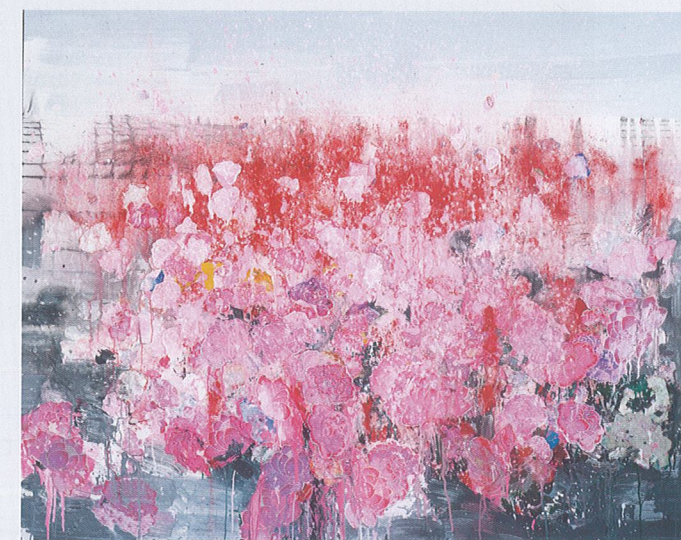

Colour changing flowerbed artwork by Zhuang Hong Yi view from left to right

“ I was influenced by a lot of Western impressionist art... I have vivid memories of seeing fields of flowers from the sky, it was my goal to bring these visions to life through my Art ”
Zhuang Hong Yi

Zhuang Hong Yi landscape 200 x 250 Fine rice paper and acrylic

Fine rice paper and acrylic paint 200 x 250